Swanirbhar Naari

Swanirbhar Naari lets registered weavers of Assam sell their traditional hand-woven items straight to the government, with no middlemen.

What you may get

The government buys benchmarked traditional hand-woven items directly from registered weavers through its procurement centres in the districts, without any middlemen, and pays the weavers. The page reports Rs 19,24,06,252 paid so far for 5,54,892 items from 19,845 weavers.

Who it is for

Weavers of Assam who make the benchmarked hand-woven items and register on the Swanirbhar Naari portal.

Main conditions

- The weaver must produce the benchmarked traditional hand-woven items.
- The weaver must register on the Swanirbhar Naari portal.
- Registration is accepted only after departmental officials verify the weaver in person.

How to apply

1. Open the Swanirbhar Naari portal and apply to register as a weaver.
2. Wait for departmental officials to visit and verify you physically, because registration depends on this check.
3. After approval, sell your benchmarked items at the procurement centre set up in your district.
