Mentally Retarded Children Benefit Scheme (Punjab BOCW Board)

The Punjab construction workers' welfare board gives Rs 20,000 a year to a registered worker towards the care of a child with a mental disability.

What you may get

Financial help of Rs 20,000 a year for the care of a son or daughter of a registered construction worker who has a mental disability.

Who it is for

Construction workers registered with the Punjab BOCW Welfare Board whose son or daughter has a mental disability.

Main conditions

- The worker must be paying his contribution to the Board regularly.
- The child must have a certificate of mental disability from the senior medical officer of a government hospital or an ESI hospital.

Documents

- Certificate of the child's condition from the senior medical officer of a government hospital or ESI hospital, uploaded on the Board portal

How to apply

1. Register with the Board first. A worker aged 18 to 60 who did construction work in Punjab for at least 90 days in the last 12 months fills Application form No 28 and pays the registration fee.
2. File the application at the nearest Sewa Kendra, or meet the Labour Inspector, the Labour Enforcement Officer, the Labour-cum-Conciliation Officer or the Assistant Labour Commissioner of your area.
3. Upload the medical certificate for the child on the Board portal.
