Cottage Dairy Unit Scheme

Assam plans to give cottage dairy units with paneer making equipment, an incubator and a milk analyser to 30 dairy farmers, through registered dairy cooperative societies.

What you may get

A cottage dairy unit with paneer making equipment, an incubator, a milk analyser and similar items for 30 dairy farmers, so that they can make products such as paneer, dahi, channa and khoa at home. The page gives no amount.

Who it is for

Dairy farmers in Assam, through registered dairy cooperative societies, who want to make value added milk products.

Main conditions

- Registered dairy cooperative societies (DCS) can apply for the benefits.
- The page says 30 dairy farmers will get a unit, so the number of places is limited.
- The scheme is meant for eligible dairy farmers who make milk products like paneer, dahi, channa and khoa and lack the equipment.
