Financial Assistance to SC students appearing in the Mains Examination of UPSC

Assam gives a grant to Scheduled Caste candidates who have cleared the UPSC Preliminary exam, to help with the cost of appearing in the Mains exam.

What you may get

Up to Rs 50,000 to each beneficiary for appearing in the UPSC Mains examination, subject to the budget provision.

Who it is for

Scheduled Caste candidates of Assam who have qualified a recent UPSC Preliminary Examination and whose parents earn up to Rs 5 lakh a year.

Main conditions

- The candidate must belong to a Scheduled Caste community of Assam.
- The candidate must have qualified a recent UPSC Preliminary Examination.
- The parents' annual income must not be more than Rs 5 lakh.
- The help is not a matter of right: it depends on eligibility, documents and the budget provision.

Documents

- Caste certificate (valid SC certificate that names the sub-caste)
- Parents' annual income certificate issued by the Circle Officer
- Admit card of the Preliminary examination
- Proof of qualifying in the Preliminary examination
- Self-attested copy of the front page of the bank passbook
- Voter ID or PAN card
- Aadhaar card
