Financial Loan for Training of Commercial Pilot

Gujarat gives a loan of Rs 25 lakh at 4% interest to students of socially and educationally backward classes who want to train for a commercial pilot licence.

What you may get

A loan of Rs 25 lakh for commercial pilot licence training, at 4% simple interest a year. Missed instalments attract a penal interest of 2.5%.

Who it is for

Students of socially and educationally backward classes, looked after by the Director, Developing Castes Welfare, who want commercial pilot training.

Main conditions

- The candidate must have passed matriculation, higher secondary or an equivalent school certificate examination.
- The candidate must meet all the educational, technical and other requirements set by the training institute.
- There is no income limit.
- One solvent guarantor must be given.
- After the loan is sanctioned, the guardian's property, or the guarantor's property if that is not possible, must be mortgaged to the government.
- Repayment starts one year after the money is paid out. The principal is repaid within 10 years and the interest within 2 years, so the whole amount is cleared in 12 years.

Documents

- Caste certificate
- School leaving certificate
- Family income certificate, income tax return or Form 16
- Copies of educational certificates from class 10 up to the last examination
- Admission consent letter from the training institute
- Estimate of training expenses
- For training abroad: copies of passport, visa and air ticket
- Proof of the guardian's property and a valuation report

How to apply

1. Go to the website esamajkalyan.gujarat.gov.in, open the Director Developing Castes Welfare section and choose the commercial pilot licence training loan to see the application form and the list of papers.
2. Fill in the online form, upload the papers and submit it. Take a printout and attach the uploaded papers.
3. Submit two copies of the printout with the papers at your district office, which checks the application. If details are missing, the form is returned for you to complete.
4. The district office sends the application to the Director, Developing Castes Welfare, whose office examines applications in order and sends the order to you and the district office.
5. After sanction, get the mortgage deed in the prescribed format from the district office and register it. The money is paid into the student's bank account once the original registered deed is submitted.
