Navabihan Yojana

Under Navabihan Yojana, Chhattisgarh helps women facing domestic violence with legal advice, counselling, medical help, transport and shelter, through the protection officer posted in each district.

What you may get

Support for a woman who is a victim of domestic violence, as she needs it: legal advice, counselling, medical facility, transport and shelter. No cash amount is stated on the page.

Who it is for

Women of Chhattisgarh who are victims of domestic violence under the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005.

Main conditions

- The help is for a woman who is a victim of domestic violence, as covered by the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005.
- The kind of help given, such as legal advice, counselling, medical help, transport or shelter, depends on what the woman needs.

How to apply

1. Find your district's protection officer in the list on the department page, which gives each district officer's name and phone number.
2. Contact that officer. You can also reach out to the District Programme Officer, the District Women and Child Development Officer, the Child Development Project Officer or the administrator of the Sakhi centre.
3. Tell the officer what help you need, so that legal advice, counselling, medical help, transport or shelter can be arranged.
