Educated Youth Allowance and Honorarium Scheme 2016 (Saksham Yuva Scheme)

A Haryana scheme that pays a monthly unemployment allowance to educated jobless youth and offers them paid honorary work of up to 100 hours a month in government offices. It is popularly called the Saksham Yuva Scheme.

What you may get

Monthly unemployment allowance of Rs 1,200 for 10+2 pass, Rs 2,000 for graduates and Rs 3,500 for postgraduates. When given an honorary work assignment, the youth gets an honorarium of Rs 6,000 a month, for a maximum of 3 years or until age 35, whichever comes first.

Who it is for

Unemployed youth of Haryana who have passed 10+2, graduation or post-graduation as regular students.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be a domicile of Haryana and registered on the live register of the employment exchange (registration can be done at the same time on hrex.gov.in).
- Age must be 18 to 35 years for 10+2 pass, and 21 to 35 years for graduates and postgraduates.
- 10+2 must be passed as a regular student from a school in Haryana or Chandigarh affiliated to BSEH, CBSE or ICSE, and not through correspondence or open school. Degrees must be regular courses from universities in Haryana, Chandigarh, Delhi or Punjabi University, Patiala.
- The applicant must not be a full-time student, must not have any job or self-employment, and must not have been dismissed from government service.
- Annual family income from all sources must not be more than Rs 3,00,000.

Documents

- Parivar Pehchan Patra (PPP ID), used to check family income online

How to apply

1. Register on the employment exchange live register through hrex.gov.in, if you have not done so already.
2. Sign up and register online on the Saksham Yuva portal (hreyahs.gov.in). Registration is accepted only online.
3. Your family income is checked online from the PPP database, so no income certificate is needed.
4. If the District Employment Exchange rejects the application, you can file an online appeal to the ADC within 30 days, and then to the DC within 15 days.
