Samarth Vriddh SEWA Ashram Scheme, 2024

The Samarth Vriddh SEWA Ashram Scheme, 2024 provides old age homes in Haryana for senior citizens aged 60 and above. The homes are run by the department or by approved NGOs, trusts and societies.

What you may get

A place in a registered old age home with a secure living space, meals, medical and nursing support, recreation and no admission fee. Each resident also receives Rs 1,000 a month in the bank account as Old Age Samman Allowance, and this rate can be revised. Residents are registered under Ayushman Bharat and can get assistive devices such as wheelchairs, hearing aids and spectacles through Rashtriya Vayoshri Yojana.

Who it is for

Senior citizens aged 60 or above, of any religion or caste, who are permanent residents of Haryana and hold a Parivar Pehchan Patra (PPP) ID.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be 60 years old or above, whatever the religion or caste.
- The applicant must be a permanent resident of Haryana and must hold a Parivar Pehchan Patra (PPP) ID.
- When seats are limited, preference goes to those above 80 years, to poor senior citizens with family income up to Rs 1.8 lakh a year, and to women over men.
- Senior citizens with income above Rs 2 lakh a year who are left uncared for by their families can stay on a Pay and Stay basis and pay only food charges.
- Senior citizens sent by courts, the police or other Government agencies may also be admitted.

Documents

- Duly filled application form for admission into the old age home
- Parivar Pehchan Patra (PPP) ID

How to apply

1. Download the admission application form from the scheme page of the Directorate of Social Justice and Empowerment, Haryana.
2. Fill in the form and submit it with your PPP ID to the agency that runs the old age home. No admission fee is charged with the application.
3. Selection follows the preference rules. For homes run by the Government, the Additional Deputy Commissioner of the district issues the admission order and decides any dispute.
4. In an emergency at odd hours, the SDM or the District Social Welfare Officer may order a short stay in a Government home.
