State Awards To Disabled Persons

Haryana gives yearly cash State Awards to persons with disabilities, employers, institutions and others who have worked outstandingly to help persons with disabilities.

What you may get

Each award comes with a shield and scroll. Cash prizes: Rs 25,000 for the best disabled government employee, a self-employed person, the best individual and each adult creative award (one man, one woman); Rs 15,000 for the second best government employee and for each creative child under 18 (one boy, one girl); Rs 50,000 for the best employer, the best institution and a barrier-free environment.

Who it is for

Persons with disabilities, employers, institutions and organisations that have worked outstandingly for the welfare of persons with disabilities in Haryana.

Main conditions

- The work must be outstanding and must help persons with disabilities.
- Awards are given in set categories: best disabled employee in government or PSU, self-employed disabled person, best employer, best individual, best institution, barrier-free environment, and creative awards for adults and for children below 18.
- Applicants send complete details and evidence of their achievements, and the jury decides. The jury's decision is final.

Documents

- Complete details and evidence of achievements, sent with the online application
