State Marriage Assistance Scheme (SMAS) for poor girls

Jammu and Kashmir gives financial help towards marriage to educated unmarried girls from poor families who are named in the district survey lists.

What you may get

The committee may sanction financial help to the girl once the rules are met and funds are available, and the money is credited to her savings bank account.

Who it is for

Unmarried girls above 18 years from poor families of Jammu and Kashmir who appear in the district survey lists.

Main conditions

- The girl is an identified poor girl in the survey lists held by the District Development Commissioner or the District Social Welfare Officer.
- She is above 18 years of age.
- She has not taken help for the same purpose under any other state or centrally sponsored scheme.
- She can take the benefit only once under this scheme.
