Last checked: 20 October 2026 · Social Justice and Special Assistance Department, Government of Maharashtra

Mahatma Gandhi De-addiction Counseling, Treatment, Rehabilitation, Promotion, and Dissemination

A Maharashtra grant for registered institutions that run de-addiction counselling, treatment and rehabilitation work. The institution applies, not an individual.

What you may get

The state supports 12 institutions, two from each revenue division. Every selected institution receives a grant of Rs 11 lakh, which makes Rs 1,32,00,000 in total.

Who it is for

Registered voluntary institutions that do de-addiction work and have been running for at least 5 years. Patients and other individuals do not apply directly.

Main conditions

- The institution is registered under the 1860 and 1950 Acts named on the scheme page.
- The institution has been running for at least 5 years.
- The institution can show audit reports for the last 5 years.
- The institution promotes de-addiction in the district through different activities.

Documents

- Application in the prescribed format
- Audit reports of the last 5 years
- List of medicines and list of beneficiaries
- Lease agreement and map of the building
- Photographs of special programmes

How to apply

1. The institution, not an individual, prepares the application in the prescribed format and attaches the documents listed above.
2. Contact the Social Welfare Officer of the Zilla Parishad in the district to apply.
3. Read the government resolutions listed on the scheme page for the full rules of the grant.

Status

Active

Official source: https://sjsa.maharashtra.gov.in/en/scheme/mahatma-gandhi-de-addiction-counseling-treatment-rehabilitation-promotion-and-dissemination/
Labh Lo page: https://labhlo.in/en/schemes/maharashtra/mh-gandhi-deaddiction-ngo-grant/

Labh Lo Summary. Not an official government document.
Labh Lo is an independent information platform. This PDF is a summary. It is not an official government document. Government authorities determine final eligibility and approval. Check the official source before applying.