Raje Yashwantrao Holkar English Medium Residential Education Scheme (Dhangar Community)

Dhangar community children from low-income families get free residential English-medium schooling, with food and school items, up to class 12 under this Maharashtra scheme.

What you may get

Selected students get education along with stay, food and school material free of cost, and the government pays the school fee for each student until the student passes class 12.

Who it is for

Dhangar community students in Maharashtra whose family income is within Rs 1 lakh a year, with priority for widowed, divorced, destitute, deserted and below-poverty-line families.

Main conditions

- The student must belong to the Dhangar community.
- The family's annual income must not be above Rs 1 lakh.
- Students from widowed, divorced, destitute, deserted or below-poverty-line families are chosen first.

Documents

- Copy of the Dhangar community certificate issued in the student's name by the competent authority
