Sant Ravidas Award

Maharashtra honours social workers and organisations that have served the Charmakar and Dalit communities for many years with a cash award.

What you may get

One individual receives Rs 21,001 and one organisation receives Rs 30,001.

Who it is for

Renowned social workers with at least 15 years of work for the Charmakar and Dalit communities, and social organisations with at least 10 years of work for the upliftment of the Charmakar community.

Main conditions

- An individual is a renowned social worker who has served the Charmakar and Dalit communities and has at least 15 years in the social sector.
- An individual is not considered for the award more than once, and elected representatives are not eligible.
- An organisation works for the Charmakar community in education, health, ending injustice, ending superstition or spreading public awareness.
- The organisation has worked in social welfare for at least 10 years, and this may be relaxed for exceptional and substantial work.

How to apply

1. Submit the application to the Assistant Commissioner, Social Welfare of your district.
2. Apply as an individual or as an organisation, according to the criteria above.
