Payment of Tuition Fees and Examination Fees to VJNT and SBC Students in Std 1 to 10

Maharashtra pays the school fees of VJNT and SBC students in Std 1 to 10 directly to the school, whatever the student's age or family income.

What you may get

The state pays the fees the school is allowed to charge, such as admission, library, sports and laboratory fees, straight to the school. A student who failed once is also covered. No age or income limit applies.

Who it is for

Students of the VJNT and SBC categories who study in recognised schools from Std 1 to Std 10 in Maharashtra.

Main conditions

- The student must study in a recognised school.
- The student must belong to a caste listed under the VJNT or SBC category.
- Age and family income are not considered for this fee payment.
- Fees the school is allowed to charge are paid to the school, not to the family.
