Mahatma Jyotirao Phule Jan Arogya Yojana (MJPJAY)

Cashless hospital treatment for families in Maharashtra, covering up to Rs 5 lakh a year per family. Since 1 July 2024 it covers all Maharashtra families, through one scheme joined with Ayushman Bharat.

What you may get

Cashless treatment of up to Rs 5 lakh per family per year, shared across the family, for 1,356 treatment packages in 34 specialities at empanelled hospitals. Follow-up treatment is covered. Road accident victims from outside Maharashtra get up to Rs 1 lakh per person.

Who it is for

Families in Maharashtra holding a yellow, Antyodaya, Annapurna, orange or white ration card, and families with no ration card but a Maharashtra domicile certificate. Some groups such as ashram school students, old age home residents and registered journalists are also covered.

Main conditions

- The scheme covers the whole state population from 1 July 2024.
- You show a ration card or an Ayushman card along with a valid ID proof.
- Treatment must be at a hospital empanelled under the scheme and for a listed treatment.

Documents

- Yellow, Antyodaya, Annapurna or orange ration card, or an Ayushman card, with a valid ID proof
- White ration card with a valid ID proof
- If you have no ration card: Maharashtra domicile certificate or Tahsildar certificate, a self-declaration and a valid ID proof
