Chief Minister's Youth Development Scheme (CMYDS)

The Meghalaya Sports and Youth Affairs Department extends financial aid to registered youth bodies and similar groups that work for young people, through the Deputy Commissioner's office.

What you may get

Financial aid is given to registered youth clubs, societies, voluntary organisations and similar entities for youth activities. The amount is not stated on the scheme page, so ask the Deputy Commissioner's office. Individuals do not apply directly.

Who it is for

Registered organisations and institutions in Meghalaya that work with young people aged 14 to 29, such as youth clubs, societies and voluntary groups.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be a registered entity such as a society, cooperative, voluntary organisation, youth or cultural club, alumni association or registered sports association.
- Not for profit organisations, community level youth groups and district level state government departments are also named.
- The scheme page lists the youth age range as 14 to 29 years.

How to apply

1. Contact the office of the Deputy Commissioner of your district, which routes the aid.
2. Read the scheme guidelines linked on the scheme page before the organisation applies.
