Griha Aadhar Scheme

Goa pays a monthly amount directly to housewives and homemakers from middle, lower middle and poor families to help run the household.

What you may get

Rs 1,500 every month, paid straight into the bank account of the homemaker by DBT. The department sanctions at most 15,000 applications in a calendar month.

Who it is for

Married women above 18 years, including widows and divorcees, who have lived in Goa for 15 years and whose family income is within Rs 3 lakh a year.

Main conditions

- You must be a married woman above 18 years. Widows and divorcees also count.
- You must have lived in Goa for the last 15 years.
- The combined yearly income of husband and wife must not be more than Rs 3,00,000. For a widow or divorcee, her own income must be within this limit.
- You or your husband must not be receiving the Dayanand Social Security Scheme benefit. A widow with a child living gets an exception until the child turns 18.
