Inter-State Border Areas Development Programme (ISBADP)

ISBADP is a fully State funded programme of the Meghalaya Border Areas Development Department for villages along the border with Assam.

What you may get

State funds to fill critical gaps and meet the immediate needs of people living in border villages near Assam. The programme is funded 100 percent by the State.

Who it is for

Villages within 10 km of the Inter-State boundary with Assam, with priority for villages within 5 km. Individuals do not apply directly.

Main conditions

- The village should lie within 10 km, in straight-line distance, of the Inter-State boundary with Assam.
- Villages within 5 km of the boundary get first priority.
- Projects are planned through the Deputy Commissioners, line departments and Village Councils, not by individual applications.

How to apply

1. Individuals do not apply to this programme. Projects are taken up for the border villages through the Deputy Commissioners and line departments.
2. The Directorate of Border Areas Development sends proposals to the department, which passes them to the Planning and Finance Departments for sanction.
