Prashikshan Yatra for SC/Dhangar Gavli Community

Goa gives financial help to recognised schools that take Scheduled Caste and Dhangar Gavli students on a study tour or excursion.

What you may get

The institution can receive up to Rs 1.00 lakh for a study tour. It covers the actual travel cost of up to 40 students and two teachers by second class sleeper (non AC) train or by bus, entry fees for monuments and cultural sites, and lodging and boarding for at least 6 days. The tour must last six days or more. Any other cost is borne by the student or the institution.

Who it is for

Schools in Goa recognised by the Goa Board or CBSE that have Scheduled Caste or Dhangar Gavli students in classes VIII to XII. The institution applies, not the individual student.

Main conditions

- The applicant is an educational institute in Goa recognised by the Goa Board or CBSE.
- The institute has students from the Scheduled Caste or Dhangar Gavli community.
- The scheme covers students of classes VIII to XII only.
- The tour lasts six days or more and takes up to 40 students and two teachers.

Documents

- Caste certificate
- Income certificate
- Recommendation of the institution
