Primary School Scholarship and Upper Primary Scholarship

The Meghalaya Directorate of Educational Research and Training holds a scholarship examination for class V and class VIII students, and successful students get a scholarship.

What you may get

Students who succeed in the scholarship examination get financial help for three years, as long as their conduct is good and progress is satisfactory. The scheme page does not state the amount.

Who it is for

Students of class V and class VIII in schools of Meghalaya who appear for the scholarship examination; the page lists the community as ST.

Main conditions

- The student must be studying in class V or class VIII in a school of the state.
- The student must appear for the scholarship examination held by DERT.
- The scholarship runs for three years and depends on good conduct and satisfactory progress.

How to apply

1. The student applies through the school to the SDSEO (Sub-Divisional School Education Officer).
2. The SDSEO sends the student list to DERT, which conducts the examination.
3. Selected students receive the scholarship through the DSEL.
