Mukhyamantri Awas Yojana and PMAY Housing Help, Rule 302 (Himachal Pradesh BOCW Welfare Board)

The board adds housing money for registered construction workers whose house has been sanctioned under the Mukhyamantri Awas Yojana or PMAY by the Rural Development Department.

What you may get

The board gives Rs 1,50,000 towards building the house sanctioned under the Mukhyamantri Awas Yojana or PMAY.

Who it is for

Registered Himachal Pradesh construction workers with a house sanctioned under the Mukhyamantri Awas Yojana or PMAY.

Main conditions

- The house must be sanctioned by the Rural Development Department under the Mukhyamantri Awas Yojana or PMAY.
- The worker must be a registered member of the Himachal Pradesh construction workers welfare board and keep paying the contribution.
- Registration needs an age of 18 to 60 and at least 90 days of building or construction work in the last 12 months.
- Wage slips for 90 days of work must be submitted to the labour office every year to claim help.

Documents

- Wage slips for 90 days of construction work each year

How to apply

1. Register as a construction worker at the Labour Welfare Officer's office of your area, or on the board's portal, and pay the contribution regularly.
2. Send your application for this benefit to the same Labour Welfare Officer's office, or open the Apply For Benefits page on the portal with your Beneficiary ID.
3. Attach the yearly wage slips and any papers the office asks for, then follow up with the office.
