Manipur Old Age Pension Scheme

The Manipur Old Age Pension Scheme gives a monthly pension to destitute old people, and to widows without income, who are 60 or above and have lived in Manipur for over ten years.

What you may get

The pension shown on the Directorate's rules page is Rs 200 per month for each eligible person. If both husband and wife are destitute, each of them can receive the pension.

Who it is for

Destitute persons aged 60 or above, and widows, who have no income or income source and have lived in Manipur for more than ten years.

Main conditions

- You should be 60 years old or above.
- You should have no income or source of income, either of your own or from anyone legally bound to support you.
- You should be a citizen of India and a resident of Manipur for more than ten years when you apply.
- A widow with no source of income, including income from property she owns, or with an earning brother, comes under the rules for the pension.

Documents

- Medical certificate from a Medical Officer as proof of age
- Two recent photographs with your signature, attested by a Gazetted Officer
- Income certificate in the prescribed format from the DC, SDO or SDC, or from the employer if an employed person is named in the application

How to apply

1. Fill in application form MOAP-I.
2. Submit it to the Deputy Commissioner or the SDO of the district or sub-division where you live.
3. Attach the medical certificate, photographs and income certificate.
4. The application is then forwarded to the Director of Social Welfare, Government of Manipur.
