Mukhyamantri Kisan Kalyan Yojana

Madhya Pradesh gives its own yearly cash help to land holding farmers who are eligible under PM-KISAN, on top of the central PM-KISAN money.

What you may get

Rs 6,000 a year from the state, paid in three equal instalments of Rs 2,000 straight to the farmer's bank account by single click payment. This is in addition to the Rs 6,000 a year that farmers keep getting under PM-KISAN.

Who it is for

Land holding farmer families of Madhya Pradesh who meet the PM-KISAN eligibility rules.

Main conditions

- The same eligibility rules as PM-KISAN apply; the farmer must hold land.
- Institutional land holders are not eligible.
- Not for families with a present or former holder of a constitutional post, minister, MP, MLA, mayor or district panchayat chairperson.
- Not for serving or retired government officers and employees (multi tasking staff, Class IV and Group D staff are not excluded), or pensioners getting Rs 10,000 or more a month.
- Not for people who paid income tax in the last assessment year, or practising professionals such as doctors, engineers, lawyers, chartered accountants and architects.

How to apply

1. Farmers eligible under PM-KISAN give their application for this scheme through the area patwari or the tehsil office. There is no fee.
2. The patwari verifies the case and the tehsildar approves it.
3. The state pays the instalments through the year: the first between April and July, the second between August and November and the third between December and March.
4. Check your instalments on the SAARA portal under CM Kisan Kalyan Yojana beneficiary status, using your Aadhaar number, bank account or PM-KISAN ID.
