Rajya Poshit Masala Kshetra Vistar Yojana

Madhya Pradesh gives a subsidy to farmers who start growing seed spices, or turmeric, ginger and garlic, and are not growing spices at present.

What you may get

For seed spice crops: 50 percent of the seed cost, up to Rs 10,000 per hectare, whichever is less. For turmeric, ginger and garlic: 50 percent of the planting material cost, up to Rs 50,000 per hectare, whichever is less. The subsidy is paid to a farmer only once.

Who it is for

Farmers of every category in Madhya Pradesh who are not growing spices at present.

Main conditions

- Only farmers who do not currently grow spices are encouraged under the scheme.
- A farmer may plant any area the first time, but the subsidy covers at least 0.25 hectare and at most 2 hectares.
- The subsidy is paid only once to one farmer.
- The scheme works on the farmer's own land, and the farmer must have enough irrigation.
- Online application with an Aadhaar number is compulsory, and tribal farmers holding a forest rights certificate are also eligible.

Documents

- Photograph
- Aadhaar
- Copy of khasra number, B1 or forest lease
- Bank passbook
