Mukhyamantri Machhua Samriddhi Yojana

A Madhya Pradesh scheme that promotes fish farming through fish seed rearing in village ponds, shrimp farming, training for fish farmers and smart fish parlours, with a subsidy on cost.

What you may get

The page lists a subsidy of 40 percent of the cost. It is paid after the work is completed and evaluated. The scheme covers activities such as fish seed rearing in rural ponds, shrimp farming, training and setting up smart fish parlours.

Who it is for

Fish farmers of every category in Madhya Pradesh who take up fish farming activities covered by the scheme.

Main conditions

- The applicant is a fish farmer or beneficiary under the fisheries activities covered by the scheme.
- Beneficiaries of all categories can take part, as the state Fisheries Policy 2008 provides.
- The subsidy is paid only after the work is finished and checked.

How to apply

1. Approach the district office of the Fishermen Welfare and Fisheries Development Department, where the Deputy or Assistant Director of Fisheries is the officer for the district.
2. No application fee is charged.
3. After the work is completed, it is evaluated and then the subsidy is paid.
4. For an appeal, write to the Director of Fisheries.
