Haryana State Level Awards for Women

Haryana's Women and Child Development Department gives cash state awards to women with outstanding work in fields such as public service, courage, panchayat leadership and enterprise.

What you may get

Cash prizes with a citation: Rs 5 lakh and a shawl for the Sushma Swaraj Award, Rs 1.5 lakh for the Indira Gandhi Mahila Shakti Award, Rs 1 lakh each for the Kalpna Chawla Shaurya Award and the Bahin Shanno Devi Panchayati Raj Award, and Rs 51,000 with a shawl for the Life Time Achievement Award. The Women Outstanding Achievers Awards carry Rs 21,000 each, with a citation and a shawl.

Who it is for

Women who have done outstanding work, including bravery, social work, enterprise, public service or panchayat and municipal leadership. Winners receive the award in person on International Women's Day.

Main conditions

- The nominee must hold a valid Parivar Pehchan Patra and must be alive on the date of nomination.
- Her achievement in the field must be clear and well documented, and it is checked before selection.
- No one can receive the same award more than once.
- The Life Time Achievement Award is for women aged 60 or above, and the Kalpna Chawla Shaurya Award is for courage shown at risk to her own life.
- The Bahin Shanno Devi Award is for women panchayat, block samiti, zila parishad and urban body representatives, and the Outstanding Achievers Awards are for government employees, social workers with five years of welfare work and women entrepreneurs.
- For the Sushma Swaraj Award, two MPs and one MLA may each nominate one candidate, and the committee may also select a candidate on its own.
