नेताजी सुभाषचन्द्र बोस बालिका छात्रावास (कक्षा 6 से 8 तक)

Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Balika Chhatravas gives girls of classes 6 to 8, who are left out of schooling, a place to stay and study in a residential hostel in Madhya Pradesh.

What you may get

Free residential hostel facility with free food and lodging for girls studying in classes 6 to 8. No cash amount is given.

Who it is for

Girls of classes 6 to 8 in Madhya Pradesh, mainly from SC, ST, OBC and minority communities or BPL families, who lack a nearby school or have dropped out.

Main conditions

- Girls who passed class 5 are admitted to the hostel.
- Priority goes to girls from villages with no middle school within 3 km, girls who dropped out, school-leavers, never-enrolled girls, homeless or orphan girls, single-parent girls and girls with a bone-related disability.
- At least 75% of the girls should be from SC, ST, backward class or minority communities, with at least 6 girls from minorities in each hostel, and up to 25% can be from BPL families.
- Girls who live locally are not admitted to the hostel.

How to apply

1. Contact the hostel warden or assistant warden, or the district, block or Jan Shiksha Kendra level office that runs the girls' hostels.
2. Apply in the window from 1 April to 15 June.
3. There is no application fee.
4. For an appeal, approach the District Project Coordinator or the Block Resource Coordinator (BRCC).
