Scheme for Relief and Rehabilitation of Women Acid Victims

Haryana gives quick cash relief and free medical treatment to girls and women who have been victims of an acid attack in the state.

What you may get

Rs 25,000 as immediate ad hoc relief through the Deputy Commissioner and Rs 75,000 within 15 days from the Women and Child Development Department, to meet urgent medical costs. The scheme also pays in full (100%) for medical treatment at a Government or Government-approved hospital, covering medicine, food, bedding and any plastic or reconstructive surgery, and the department reimburses it.

Who it is for

Girls and women living in Haryana who became victims of an acid attack in Haryana after 2 May 2011.

Main conditions

- The acid attack happened after 2 May 2011.
- The victim lives in Haryana and the attack took place in Haryana.
- If the victim has not been fully cured and treatment is still going on, she is still covered because the cause of action continues.
- The state's 2018 notification also covers boys up to 18 years, and allows an heir to apply for a victim who is unable to apply herself.
