Who can apply and the conditions

- Medical post: MBBS or equivalent degree recognised by MCI/NMC, with 8 years of research and development experience.
- Non-medical post: Master's degree in a subject related to Biomedical Sciences, or a Pharm-D degree recognised by UGC/PCI, with 8 years of experience.
- A PhD counts as 4 years and an MD or MS as 3 years of experience. An MPH or M.Tech does not count as experience.
- Upper age limit is 45 years, relaxable as per Government of India instructions.
- Only Indian citizens can apply.

Selection process

- Selection is by a computer based test (multiple choice questions), or an interview, or both.
- If a test is held, it checks understanding of research methods and is qualifying.
- If there are many eligible candidates, ICMR may shortlist further on higher experience or higher qualification.

How to apply

1. Register and fill in the online application on the ICMR recruitment portal (recruitment.icmr.org.in).
2. Upload documents for your qualification, specialisation and experience.
3. Pay the Rs 1500 fee online through the link in the form, unless you are exempt.
4. Submit before 16 November 2026, 5:30 PM. Offline forms are not accepted, though a hard copy may be asked for later.
