Young Innovators Program

Mission Youth of Jammu and Kashmir gives financial help to young innovators for new products, services or models in areas such as art, craft, literature, research and science.

What you may get

The total help under this programme can go up to Rs 5 lakh. A person can seek help only once for a particular innovation. The guidelines plan to support 50 applicants in a calendar year to begin with, subject to funds approved each year.

Who it is for

Young people of Jammu and Kashmir aged 18 to 35 with at least Class 10, who have an innovative project in art, skills, crafts, literature, research or science.

Main conditions

- The applicant should be 18 to 35 years old and have a qualification of Class 10 or above. The CEO of Mission Youth can relax the education rule in deserving cases.
- The project should show a notable level of creativity in art, skills, crafts, literature, research or science.
- A person can seek help only once for a particular innovation.
- Those not enrolled in any institution can apply directly, but they must be registered with Mission Youth.

Documents

- Financial justification with stage-wise funding need, on the fund utilization template given on the registration page
- Indemnity bond attested by a First Class Judicial Magistrate (from selected applicants, before payment)

How to apply

1. Open the Young Innovators Program registration form on the Mission Youth website and fill in your personal, address, qualification and innovation details.
2. Download the fund utilization template from the same page and give the financial justification with your stage-wise funding need.
3. Students and others linked to an institution can be proposed by that institution, since Mission Youth invites institutions to send proposals each calendar year.
4. Mission Youth shortlists projects, may call applicants for a presentation, and then sanctions help for the chosen ones.
