Maha Lakshmi Scheme

Telangana's Maha Lakshmi scheme supports women from poor families with Rs 2,500 a month, cooking gas cylinders at Rs 500 and free bus travel inside the state.

What you may get

Eligible women receive Rs 2,500 per month and can buy LPG cylinders at Rs 500 each every month. Women, girls and transgender persons can also travel free in Telangana State Road Transport Corporation buses within the state.

Who it is for

Women from Below Poverty Line and Antyodaya families who permanently live in Telangana. Free bus travel is open to all women, girls and transgender persons who hold a valid Aadhaar card.

Main conditions

- The applicant is a permanent resident of Telangana.
- The annual family income is below Rs 2 lakh.
- The woman belongs to a Below Poverty Line or Antyodaya family.
- Free bus travel has no such test: a valid Aadhaar card is enough for women, girls and transgender persons.

Documents

- Residence proof or Telangana domicile proof
- Valid Aadhaar card
- BPL ration card or other relevant documents
- Bank account number and IFSC code
- Income certificate showing annual family income
- Valid domestic gas connection receipt, for the gas subsidy
