Last checked: 20 October 2026 · Social Justice Department, Government of Kerala

Financial Assistance Scheme for Probationers in Good Conduct

Kerala's Social Justice Department gives one-time help to poor probationers who are living a good life under supervision so that they can start self-employment.

What you may get

A one-time grant, currently Rs 15,000, to help a probationer find self-employment as part of social rehabilitation.

Who it is for

Poor probationers who are under supervision and behaving well, and who fall within the below poverty line limit.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be a probationer under supervision who is living in poor economic circumstances and is of good conduct.
- The applicant must fall within the below poverty line limit.

How to apply

1. Submit the application to the Probation Officer concerned.
2. The Suneethi portal of the Social Justice Department lists this scheme among its online services. Register once on the portal, log in as a citizen and submit the application. For help, call +91 471 2306040.

Status

Active

Official source: https://suneethi.sjd.kerala.gov.in/Citizen_Platform/suneethi/criteria.php#collapseTwentyeight
Official application: https://suneethi.sjd.kerala.gov.in/Citizen_Platform/suneethi/index.php
Labh Lo page: https://labhlo.in/en/schemes/kerala/kl-probationers-self-employment-assistance/

Labh Lo Summary. Not an official government document.
Labh Lo is an independent information platform. This PDF is a summary. It is not an official government document. Government authorities determine final eligibility and approval. Check the official source before applying.