Internship Stipend for Law College Final Year Students

Tamil Nadu pays a yearly internship stipend to Adi Dravidar and Tribal law students in their last year at Government Law Colleges, so that they gain practical experience of legal work.

What you may get

Each eligible student gets Rs 10,000 a year as an internship stipend. A further Rs 10,000 is given to 15 students who intern with Judges at the Madras High Court or at its Madurai Bench.

Who it is for

Adi Dravidar and Tribal students in the final year of a law course at a Government Law College in Tamil Nadu.

Main conditions

- The student must be in the final year of a course at a recognised Government Law College.
- The student must belong to the Adi Dravidar or the Tribal community.

Documents

- Community certificate
- College bonafide certificate
- Proof of joining the internship
- Bank account details

How to apply

1. Apply online on the Postmatric Scholarship Portal, which is linked from the scheme page of the Directorate of Adi Dravidar Welfare.
2. Keep the community certificate, the college bonafide certificate, the proof of joining the internship and the bank account details ready for the form.
3. For questions, contact the Principal of your Government Law College or the Adi Dravidar Welfare Commissioner at Chennai.
