Medical Grant for Non-ECHS Ex-Servicemen and Widows (Kendriya Sainik Board, via Uttarakhand Sainik Kalyan)

The Kendriya Sainik Board gives a yearly medical grant to ex-servicemen and soldiers' widows up to Havildar rank who are not covered by ECHS. Applications go through the district Sainik Welfare Office.

What you may get

A yearly medical grant towards hospital treatment for ex-servicemen and soldiers' widows who are not covered by the Ex-Servicemen Contributory Health Scheme. The Board pays the approved amount directly into the bank account.

Who it is for

Ex-servicemen and soldiers' widows up to Havildar rank who are not ECHS members, and who were treated in hospital.

Main conditions

- The applicant is an ex-serviceman or soldier's widow up to Havildar rank and is not a member of ECHS
- The application is made within 180 days of discharge from the hospital
- The applicant has not received help for the same treatment from another source

Documents

- Discharge book and identity card of the applicant
- Bank passbook
- Original medical bills and the hospital discharge summary, signed and stamped by the doctor
- Self-declaration that no other help was received for the same treatment

How to apply

1. Register on the Kendriya Sainik Board website (ksb.gov.in) and apply online with your login ID, attaching the documents listed.
2. The District Sainik Welfare Office in Uttarakhand checks the application and sends it to the Directorate of Sainik Welfare, which checks it and forwards it to the Kendriya Sainik Board.
3. If the application is found in order, the Board pays the approved amount directly into your bank account.
