Day Care Centres for Persons with Muscular Dystrophy

Tamil Nadu supports day care centres for people with muscular dystrophy, run by NGOs with government money. The centres give therapy to improve movement.

What you may get

People affected by muscular dystrophy can attend a day care centre in their district for physiotherapy and occupational therapy. The therapy aims to improve movement and help them do daily tasks with more independence.

Who it is for

Persons with muscular dystrophy living in Tamil Nadu, near one of the day care centres.

Main conditions

- The person must be affected by muscular dystrophy.
- The person must hold the national identity card for the differently abled.
- There are 14 centres, for example in Chennai, Madurai, Salem, Coimbatore and Thanjavur.

Documents

- National identity card for the differently abled

How to apply

1. Contact the District Differently Abled Welfare Officer of your district, who receives the applications.
