Mukhyamantri Konya Bibaha Yojana (MKBY)

Tripura gives one-time marriage help of Rs 50,000 to a girl aged 18 or above from an Antyodaya family, for up to two girls in each family.

What you may get

Rs 50,000 as one-time marriage assistance for each eligible girl from an Antyodaya family. The State Government pays it after the Sub-Divisional Magistrate confirms that the marriage has taken place. Up to two girls in one Antyodaya family can be helped.

Who it is for

Girls aged 18 or above from Antyodaya families of Tripura who are getting married, where the groom is 21 or above.

Main conditions

- On the date of the marriage the bride must be at least 18 years old and the groom at least 21 years old.
- The bride must belong to an Antyodaya family recorded in the state's Antyodaya database.
- The marriage must be registered at the venue or immediately after the ceremony.
- Help is given only once for a girl, and for no more than two girls of one Antyodaya family.
- Bride and groom must each give a written declaration that they have no living spouse, or that an earlier marriage ended legally through divorce.

Documents

- Aadhaar card and PRTC of the bride
- Age proof of the bride: birth certificate or school leaving certificate
- Antyodaya ration card of the bride's family as address proof
- Self declaration by bride and groom about having no existing spouse or a legal divorce
- Passport size photos of bride and groom
- Aadhaar card and address proof of the groom
- Age proof of the groom: birth certificate or school leaving certificate

How to apply

1. The bride or her legal guardian submits a paper application at the nearest Child Development Project Officer (CDPO) office in the area where the family lives.
2. Attach the documents of both bride and groom listed in the guideline.
3. The CDPO checks the application and sends it to the Sub-Divisional Magistrate within 15 days of receiving it.
4. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate releases the Rs 50,000 once the marriage is confirmed. A person who is refused can make one final appeal to the District Magistrate and Collector, who decides it within 10 days.
