Chief Minister Ghasiyari Kalyan Yojana

A Cooperative Department scheme that sells packed silage and mixed cattle feed at a low price to livestock rearers in the hill areas of Uttarakhand. It aims to cut the load of fodder that hill women carry and to raise milk output.

What you may get

Packed silage made from green maize reaches beneficiaries at only Rs 2.75 per kg at their doorstep. The state pays a 75% subsidy on the Rs 9.00 per kg selling price and also Rs 3.00 per kg for transport, loading and unloading. Silage, TMR and fodder blocks are given at concessional rates.

Who it is for

Livestock rearers in the remote rural hill areas of Uttarakhand, especially women.

Main conditions

- Meant for cattle and livestock rearers living in the remote rural hill areas of Uttarakhand.
- Women who rear animals are the main group the scheme serves.
- Farmer families who grow maize for silage, including joint cooperative maize farming, also gain from the scheme.
