Mukhyamantri Medhavi Chhatra Puraskar Yojana (Uttarakhand, award for university toppers)

Uttarakhand gives a cash award to the top three students at university level in graduation and postgraduation in arts, science and commerce.

What you may get

The first, second and third rank holders at university level in graduate and postgraduate exams receive a cash award, with higher amounts for postgraduate toppers. The student does not need to apply, as the department gets the lists from the universities.

Who it is for

Top three students in each faculty at Sri Dev Suman, Kumaun and Soban Singh Jeena universities and their affiliated colleges.

Main conditions

- The student studies at Sri Dev Suman University, Kumaun University, Soban Singh Jeena University or a college affiliated to them
- The student is among the top three at university level in arts, science or commerce at the end of the course
- Students with marks below the minimum set for the scheme, and those who passed through an improvement or back exam or dropped a year, are not eligible

How to apply

1. There is no application to fill. The department asks the government universities for a faculty-wise list of the highest scorers.
2. The student's data is taken from the Samarth portal.
3. The award is then paid directly into the student's bank account.
