Nanda Gaura Yojana (Uttarakhand, Women Empowerment and Child Development)

Nanda Gaura Yojana gives money in two parts to families in Uttarakhand for up to two daughters: one at birth and one when the daughter passes class 12.

What you may get

For each of up to two daughters of an eligible family, a first payment is made after the birth and a second payment after the girl passes class 12. Both payments go into a bank account linked with Aadhaar.

Who it is for

Permanent residents of Uttarakhand with a low monthly family income or a BPL card, for their first two daughters.

Main conditions

- The family lives permanently in Uttarakhand and its monthly income is within the limit fixed for the scheme, or the family is BPL
- Only two daughters of a family can get the benefit, and the family gives an affidavit about any earlier benefit taken
- For the first payment the girl must be born in a hospital or ANM centre and the application is filed within a set time after birth
- For the second payment the girl passes class 12 from a recognised board, is unmarried, and applies in the year she passes

Documents

- Aadhaar card and mobile number
- Mother and child protection (MCP) card, child's photograph and birth registration certificate
- Anganwadi worker's certificate, ration card, family register copy and income or BPL certificate
- Bank account linked with Aadhaar, permanent residence certificate, and affidavit
- For the second payment: class 12 marksheet and certificate, high school certificate and the girl's photograph and signature

How to apply

1. Register on the scheme portal nandagaurauk.in with the Aadhaar and mobile number of the parent or the girl.
2. After registering, apply for the payment within the set time and upload the listed documents.
3. The department checks the application and, if it is in order, pays the amount into the bank account depending on the budget available.
