Sanskrit Chhatra Pratibha Samman (Cash Honour for Sanskrit Toppers, Uttarakhand Sanskrit Academy)

The Uttarakhand Sanskrit Academy gives a cash honour and a citation to the students who score the highest marks in Sanskrit in the board, intermediate and university examinations.

What you may get

The students who stand first, second and third in Sanskrit get a cash honour paid by cheque at an honour ceremony, along with a citation. The three amounts are listed under earlier rules.

Who it is for

Students who top in Sanskrit in the Uttarakhand school board high school and intermediate examinations, the Purvamadhyama and Uttaramadhyama examinations, and in the graduate and postgraduate classes of Sanskrit universities and institutes.

Main conditions

- The student stood first, second or third on marks in Sanskrit in the examination of the year
- The examination is a high school or intermediate examination of the Uttarakhand school board, a Purvamadhyama or Uttaramadhyama examination, or a Shastri or Acharya examination of Sanskrit universities and institutes
- The student studies in Uttarakhand or in a higher Sanskrit institute named in the scheme

How to apply

1. There is no separate application. The academy writes to the secretary of the board to get the name of the student who scored the highest marks in Sanskrit in that year's high school and intermediate examinations.
2. For graduate and postgraduate classes, the academy writes to the Controller of Examinations or Registrar of the university and gets the list of the first three students in Sanskrit.
3. The academy holds an honour ceremony where the cheque and the citation are given.
