Sanskrit Chhatra Pratiyogita (Sanskrit Student Competitions with Cash Prizes, Uttarakhand Sanskrit Academy)

Once a year the Uttarakhand Sanskrit Academy holds Sanskrit drama, group song, group dance, debate, extempore speech and verse recitation competitions for school and college students, with cash prizes at block, district and state level.

What you may get

Winners of the block level competition get cash prizes and the first two teams or students go to the district level. The district level winners go to the state level and cash prizes are given at each level. The prize rates, which are higher for teams than for single students, are listed under earlier rules.

Who it is for

Students of any government, aided or private school or college in Uttarakhand, from class 6 to postgraduate level.

Main conditions

- Junior group is for students of classes 6 to 10, and senior group is for classes 11 up to postgraduate level
- The student studies in a government, non government or private school or college of Uttarakhand
- Students of B.Ed., PhD and diploma courses cannot take part
- The school or college selects the student and the principal recommends the name

How to apply

1. Watch for the notice that the academy sends to the district and block conveners once a year, usually between September and November.
2. Your school or college picks the student, and the principal sends the name with a recommendation to the Block Education Officer or block convener.
3. Block level first and second place winners go to the district competition, and district level first place winners go to the state competition.
