Uttara Khand Shaheed Kosh Anudan (Uttarakhand Martyrs' Fund Grant for Families of Soldiers Killed in Action)

Uttarakhand pays a one-time grant to the widow or dependents of soldiers and paramilitary personnel killed in wars, border clashes or internal security duty.

What you may get

A one-time grant to the family of a soldier or paramilitary person who died in a war, a border clash or internal security duty. The amount is divided between the widow and the parents in a fixed share, or among the dependent children, depending on who survives.

Who it is for

Widows and dependents of soldiers and paramilitary personnel who were killed in wars, border clashes or internal security duty.

Main conditions

- The soldier or paramilitary person died in a war, a border skirmish or internal security duty, shown by a battle casualty or operational casualty certificate
- If the martyr was married, the widow gets 60 percent and the parents 40 percent; if the parents are not alive the widow gets the whole amount; if only the parents and children survive, parents get 40 percent and children 60 percent in equal shares
- If the martyr was unmarried or a widower, the whole amount goes to the parents
- The family has not been paid an ex gratia grant by the District Sainik Welfare and Rehabilitation Office

Documents

- Bank passbook
- Initial report of the battle or accident and Part II order of the Records Office or Director General's office
- Battle casualty certificate of the martyr
- Relationship certificate issued by the Records Office or Director General's office, and identity proof of dependents
- Discharge book, if any
- Certificate that no ex gratia grant was paid by the District Sainik Welfare and Rehabilitation Office
- For paramilitary and central police forces: battle or operational casualty certificate from the Director General of the force

How to apply

1. Collect the application form from the District Sainik Welfare Office and submit it, with the documents, at the same office.
2. The district office checks the applications.
3. Approved amounts are paid directly into the bank account of the beneficiaries.
