Uchch Shiksha Protsahan Chhatravritti Yojana (Uttarakhand, scholarship for college toppers)

Uttarakhand gives a scholarship to the students who come first, second and third in each faculty at college level in graduate and postgraduate courses.

What you may get

Scholarship amounts, which differ by class and rank, are paid to the top three students of each faculty in graduate and postgraduate courses. Some amounts are monthly and some are one-time, and they are paid into the student's bank account.

Who it is for

Top three students in each faculty of government colleges and campuses of state universities, in graduate and postgraduate courses.

Main conditions

- The student studies at a government college or a state university campus in Uttarakhand
- The student comes first, second or third in the faculty, based on marks in the 12th exam for first-year graduates or in the previous year's exam for others
- The student meets the minimum marks set for the class, which differ for first-year graduates and the other years

Documents

- Registration form on the Samarth portal
- Aadhaar card and bank account
- Marksheets of the exam in which the minimum marks were obtained, attested by the nodal officer and the principal or registrar

How to apply

1. After the exam results are declared, watch for the publicity inviting applications at government colleges and university campuses.
2. Register on the Samarth portal (uttarakhand.samarth.ac.in) within the given time and upload the documents, attested by the nodal officer and the principal or registrar.
3. The department checks the documents verified on the portal, and eligible students start receiving the money in their bank accounts.
