Majhi Ladki Bahin Yojana is started

Official title: महाराष्ट्र राज्यात "मुख्यमंत्री-माझी लाडकी बहीण" योजना सुरु करण्यास मान्यता देण्याबाबत

Department: Women and Child Development Department, Government of Maharashtra

GR number: मबावि 2024/प्र.क्र.96/का-02

Date: 28 June 2024

This GR approves the Mukhyamantri Majhi Ladki Bahin Yojana. Eligible women get Rs 1,500 a month in their own bank account. It also sets who can apply, who cannot, and which papers are needed.

Main points

- Rs 1,500 a month goes straight into the woman's own Aadhaar linked bank account. If she already gets less than Rs 1,500 from another central or state money scheme, the difference is paid.
- The GR says the scheme is for women of Maharashtra aged 21 to 60: married, widowed, divorced, abandoned or destitute.
- She must live in Maharashtra, have a bank account, and her family's yearly income must not be more than Rs 2.5 lakh.
- Not eligible: family income above Rs 2.5 lakh, an income tax payer in the family, a regular government employee or pensioner in the family, a family member who is a present or past MP or MLA, more than 5 acres of farmland, or a four wheeler in the family (tractor is not counted).
- Papers listed: online application, Aadhaar card, Maharashtra domicile certificate or birth certificate, family head's income certificate, first page of bank passbook, passport photo, ration card and a signed promise to follow the rules.
- Anganwadi and village or ward level officials check the application and confirm it online. The district Women and Child Development officer sends it on, and a committee under the Collector gives final approval.

Who can this affect?

Women living in Maharashtra, and their families, who may want to apply for the scheme.

What changed?

- The scheme was approved and started by this GR. Some of these conditions were changed by later GRs of 3 July 2024 and 12 July 2024, shown below.
