Punyashlok Ahilyadevi Holkar Hostel Scheme

Maharashtra has planned a hostel for students from Std 11 onwards, with half the seats for the Dhangar community, a computer lab, wifi and a study room. The page records that construction of the Nashik hostel was approved in 2019.

What you may get

Hostel residents are to get furniture and bedding such as a table, chair, cupboard, cot, mattress, pillow and blanket. The hostels are to have a computer lab, wifi, a study room with a competitive exam centre, and a separate hall for cultural and skill guidance.

Who it is for

Students of Maharashtra studying from Std 11 onwards, with 50 percent of the hostel seats kept for students of the Dhangar community.

Main conditions

- The student must be a resident of Maharashtra.
- Admission is for studies from Std 11 onwards.
- Parents' yearly income must be below Rs 1 lakh.
- Half of the seats are reserved for Dhangar community students, and the remaining seats go to students of other categories.
