Development of Settlements of Scheduled Castes and Neo-Buddhist Elements (Rural)

Maharashtra gives a grant, based on population, for development works in rural settlements of Scheduled Castes and Neo-Buddhists.

What you may get

Each settlement gets a grant by population: Rs 2 lakh for 10 to 25 people, Rs 5 lakh for 26 to 50, Rs 8 lakh for 51 to 100, Rs 12 lakh for 101 to 150, Rs 15 lakh for 151 to 300, and Rs 20 lakh for above 301.

Who it is for

Rural settlements of Scheduled Castes and Neo-Buddhists in Maharashtra, applied for through the Gram Panchayat.

Main conditions

- The Zilla Parishad first surveys and lists the rural settlements, following the government resolution, and only listed Scheduled Caste and Neo-Buddhist settlements qualify.
- The grant depends on the settlement's population, which must be at least 10.

How to apply

1. The Gram Panchayat prepares the proposal for the works set in the Zilla Parishad's comprehensive plan.
2. The Block Development Officer forwards the proposal to the District Social Welfare Officer at the Zilla Parishad.
