Interest Subsidy for Tribal Farmers through the Cooperation Department (Individual Benefit Scheme)

Maharashtra pays the interest on concessional crop loans of tribal members of tribal cooperative societies, through the Cooperation Department. It is one of several interest subsidy schemes for tribal farmers.

What you may get

The government pays an interest subsidy on the concessional crop loan that a tribal cooperative society gives to its tribal members, so the borrower's interest cost is lower. The page does not give a rate for the subsidy.

Who it is for

Tribal farmers in Maharashtra who are members of a tribal cooperative society, own farmland and repay their approved crop loan before 30 June.

Main conditions

- You must be a member of a tribal cooperative society.
- The farmland must be in your own name.
- You must repay the approved loan before 30 June.
