Establishment of Handloom Weaving Training Centre

The Meghalaya Textiles Department runs handloom weaving training centres that teach weaving to unemployed people. The state pays the full cost.

What you may get

Weaving training is given to unemployed people at training centres set up by the department. The state pays the full cost of the scheme.

Who it is for

Unemployed people of Meghalaya, aged 18 to 70, from the community listed on the scheme page, who want to learn weaving.

Main conditions

- The applicant must be unemployed.
- Age should be between 18 and 70 years.
- The scheme page lists the community as ST.
- While choosing beneficiaries, the Zonal and District Officers may also consult the village headman.

How to apply

1. Write your application on plain paper.
2. Submit it through the nearest District Officer of the Textiles Department. The Zonal Officers and District Officers are the contact persons.
