Strengthening of Silk Reeling Unit

The Meghalaya Textiles Department supports sericulture farmers by buying their reeling cocoons, so they have a market for what they produce.

What you may get

Marketing support for sericulture farmers: the department buys reeling cocoons at the rate the government has approved, so the cocoons can be turned into silk. The page shows the scheme as fully State funded.

Who it is for

Farmers in Meghalaya aged 18 to 70 from the ST community.

Main conditions

- Age should be between 18 and 70 years.
- The page names the ST community as the target group.
- The farmer should be a bonafide farmer with enough cultivable land, as the department's scheme list says.

How to apply

1. Write your application on plain paper.
2. Submit it through the nearest District Officer of the Textiles Department.
3. The department's scheme list names the Zonal Officer and the District Officer of your district as contact persons.
