Mukhyamantri Kalyani Vivah Sahayata Yojana

Madhya Pradesh's Social Justice and Disabled Persons Welfare Department gives an incentive of Rs 2 lakh to a Kalyani on her marriage, paid into her bank account.

What you may get

An incentive of Rs 2 lakh is given to encourage the marriage of a Kalyani. The money is deposited in the Kalyani's own bank account.

Who it is for

A Kalyani who is a native of Madhya Pradesh and aged 18 or more, and who is not an income tax payer, a government employee or a family pension recipient.

Main conditions

- She must be a native of Madhya Pradesh.
- She must be at least 18 years old.
- She must not be an income tax payer.
- She must not be a government employee or officer, which covers staff of the Centre, the state, or corporations and bodies backed by government.
- She must not be receiving a family pension.

How to apply

1. Fill in the application in the form set by the department.
2. Submit it to the District Collector, or to the Joint Director or Deputy Director of Social Justice and Disabled Welfare in your district.
3. A department order dated 17-04-2025, listed on the scheme page, covers running the scheme online through the Vivah portal, so ask the district office how to submit on it.
